Reading and ELA

Our first novel of the year is integrated with our social studies curriculum. The students are excited about reading and learning about life in the wilderness from the novel Sign of the Beaver. Through the novel the students will learn about story elements, summarizing, and using correct grammar, punctuation and

ROCK BEHAVIOR

The students have been practicing procedures and getting in the swing of showing their ROCK behavior. We will begin using Class Dojo on Tuesday in addition to the daily point sheet.

Please check the WHALE binder daily for important communication from the school, PTO, or Mrs. Partain. Students write their homework and important news in their agenda each day.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you ever have a question or concern. The best way to contact me is through email. I can generally answer you within a couple of hours. My email is: fpartain@henry.k12.ga.us

What are we learning?

Students recently took the Moby Max online math assessment. This program will help guide them through any gaps they may have while also helping them achieve mastery of our fourth grade standards. Our first math unit is place value. This includes writing numbers in their various forms, adding and subtracting larger numbers, and word problems. Student learning will be personalized through Moby Max, interactive notebooks, Learnzillion, Khan Academy, and many other digital re-
